The following resolution of the Government of India in the Department of Commerce and Industry, No. 5927-5974-S, dated the 24th June 1908, passing orders on certain proposals for the limitation of Telegraph work on Sundays, is hereby published for general information;—

RESOLUTION.

"In the Resolution of the Government of India, No. 3252-3288-3, dated the 27th March 1908, certain proposals for the limitation of Telegraph work on Sundays were published for criticism, with the intimation that any replies which might be furnished would be considered at the end of the first week in May. The replies which have been received from Local Governments and private bodies are generally favourable to the proposals; but modifications have in several cases been suggested regarding points of detail. The Government of India in passing orders have endeavoured, as far as possible, to bring the scheme into accordance with these suggestions.

2. The orders which the Government of India have now passed are as follows:—

(1) In places where there is more than one office, all offices except the principal one will ordinarily be closed; but in the case of a few of the largest towns, one or two of the minor offices which serve outlying localities will also be open for short periods.

(2) First class offices will remain open from 0 hours to 0 hours as at present, except when the office is in a place where there is more than one office and it is not itself the principal office.

(3) In places where there is only one office, and the office ordinarily observes second class hours, or in places where there is more than one office and the principal office observes second class hours, it will be open in all cases for two hours in the morning (8 to 10), and for two hours in the evening (16 to 18).

(4) In places where there is only one office, the office if it ordinarily observes third class hours, will be open for one hour only in the morning (8 to 9), and for one hour in the evening (16 to 17.)

(5) Inland telegrams at the lowest rate, at present known as deferred, will not be accepted for transmission at any Telegraph Office on Sundays and the four chief holidays:—viz., Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday and the King's Birthday.

The Government of India have also approved the following additional proposals which were not mentioned in the resolution already referred to:—

(6) In cases of public emergency the District Magistrate may require a Telegraph office to be kept open specially, beyond its ordinary hours of working.

(7) Any member of the public or Government Official may procure the despatch of an urgent telegram during the hours when an office is closed, if the terminal office is open or its attention can be gained by the payment of extra fees. If both the offices of origin and destination are closed, the extra fee shall be two rupees, or if only one of them is closed, one rupee. The fees will be paid to the telegraphists in the closed offices. A Government Official may recover the cost of the extra fees in the same manner as charges for telegrams are recovered at present, submitting the receipt of a voucher".
